You Don't Know Me

My original plan was to sing opera, until I realized it just really wasn't for me. So I decided to explore. I met Murray Reid when I started singing with the GTA Swing Band in Toronto, and he approached me with the idea of doing a CD together.

Without Murray - my first album "You Don't Know Me" never would have happened. The time and energy he devoted to making this album is beyond anything I could ever repay. With his encouragement I was introduced to the fields of arranging, mixing and producing. I humbly thank his instincts to this day.

Additional gifts from Murray is the lovely introduction to these other fabulous players who lifted this album to heights I never expected: Pacey Shulman ~ bass, Brian Toner ~ drums , Andrew Burton ~ guitar and Arturo Avalos ~ percussion.

There is another hero in this story, and that is Pacy Shulman. The sole owner of Hilo Road Studios, a master at his craft, an incredibly caring and generous soul who was kind enough to give us unlimited time to play and record.

Recording can bring you to such intimate levels - you find yourself connecting beyond words. That was how it was with these fine gentlemen. It was an incredible experience for me and I hold those precious memories close to my heart.
